

2. Father, fill my teen with courage to face fears, temptations, and trials. Help them to see that you walk with them into every situation.

“Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of great courage. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go.” - Joshua 1.9

3. Dear God, let my teenager find their identity, purpose, and self-worth in you. Draw them to yourself when they feel a wandering in their heart.

“For you created my inmost being; You knit me together in my mother’s womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonder fully made, your works are wonderful.” - Psalm 139.13&14

4. Lord, give my child a hunger for your word. Let it be the compass that guides all of their choices.

“How can a young man keep his way pure? By living according to your word, I seek you with all my heart, do not let me stray from your commands. I have hidden your word in my heart so I may not sin against you.” - Psalm 119.9-11

5. God, I pray that my teen would be rooted in your love; that your love would be a source of strength and comfort in their life.

“And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all of the Lord’s holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ...” - Ephesians 3.17&18

6. Lord, please let your wisdom give my child direction; may your voice be louder than any in their life.

“My son, if you accept my words and store up my commands within you, turning your ear to wisdom and applying your heart to understanding... then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God.” - Proverbs 2.1-5
